Call to Order

President Paul Kruse called the Genoa-Kingston Board of Education meeting to order at 8:01am.

Present: Kristin Brynteson, Jake Wesner, Kristen Andrews, Barb Gustafson, and Paul Kruse.

Absent: David Cleveland and John Shipley.

Also present were district administrators Karen Simmons, Craig Butler, Stefanie Hill, John Francis, Angelo Lekkas and Brett McPherson, as well as Superintendent Brent O’Daniell and Assistant Superintendent Brad Shortridge. All administration present at 8:01 am were dismissed at 9:15am with the exception of Superintendent O’Daniell.

Goal Setting Session:

The board and administration entered into a goal setting session moderated by Mrs. Laura Martinez, Field Director for the Illinois Association of School Boards. Mrs. Martinez led the participants through an explanation of the goal setting process which included a SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, and Threats) analysis, an exercise to evaluate the group’s core values and beliefs, and eventually established a rough outline of proposed district goals that the board will fine tune and adopt at a later date.

Mrs. Martinez will be developing a document to summarize the work of the board at a later date. That document will become part of the official minutes of this board meeting, as well as the document Mrs. Martinez utilized to moderate the session.

Adjournment

A motion was made by Jake Wesner, and seconded by Kristin Brynteson, to adjourn the Special Board of Education meeting at 11:27am.
