WHAT IS AN EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE/WORK-LIFE PROGRAM?

Your Employee Assistance/Work-Life Program (EAP) is a voluntary, confidential service that provides professional counseling and referral services designed to help with personal, job or family related problems. Your EAP can help you and your family members identify, resolve and gain control over personal problems that may be interfering with work and daily life.

WHY USE THE EAP?

Sometimes personal concerns can affect our health, well-being and job performance. The EAP can help you deal with these concerns safely and privately. Your EAP can assist you and your family members with improving the quality of your life by resolving a variety of personal concerns.

WHAT WILL USING THE EAP COST?

The EAP is an employer paid benefit. Any services provided by the EAP counselors are at no charge to you or your family members.

If a referral to a long term treatment provider is needed, your EAP counselor will coordinate a referral or provide resources. Your health insurance and other financial factors will be considered to help insure that needed services are affordable.

IS THE EAP CONFIDENTIAL?

Yes, your EAP services and any information that may be provided between you and your counselor are confidential.

ONLINE WORK/LIFE RESOURCES

Your EAP also offers a wealth of work-life resources through our Online EAP/Work-Life Resource Portal. There you will find articles, podcasts, health and wellness, self assessments, financial and legal tools, eldercare, childcare.
